The last Patio Furniture you will ever have to buy

It is fade resistant (the color is the same color throughout the lumber), and it won't ever crack, peel, splinter or rot, ever! It stands up to any kind of weather from blizzards, to high winds and blazing sun. Simply put, Poly is virtually indestructible.

Why buy lightweight plastic furniture that will blow in the breeze, powder/ chalk and crack after only a few years of use (and have to be replaced) when you can buy virtually indestructible Poly patio furniture in your favorite colors that could very well last the rest of your life.
