Morsø 1410 Freestanding Wood Stove

$1,099

Morsø 1410

Morsø 1410 is a classic radiant wood stove that will quickly and efficiently heat small rooms. A traditional wood stove decorated with Morsø's classic squirrel relief on both sides.

Wood stove for small rooms

Morsø 1410 wood stove is a small universal cast-iron stove that can be used with different types of fuel: wood, briquettes, coal or energy coke. This wood stove is perfect for small homes, holiday homes etc. with limited heating needs. The stove is a powerful heat source that fires up quickly and will heat up to 800 sq ft of living space.

Versatile and practical

Morsø 1410 wood stove comes equipped with riddling grate, ash tray and ashpan, making it easy to remove ash and clean the stove. Morsø's combustion system with airwash ensures that the glass always remains clean when the stove is correctly fired.

Morsø 1410 wood stove is available as a Coal Heater.
